

The Cheese Lady Carves Her Way Into Wis. Cheese

By News Editor

World Dairy Diary – The World Dairy Business Blog

Posted: July 28, 2009

The residents of Somers, Wis. were given a cheesy treat this past week when they visited their local Sam’s Club. Four Wisconsin cheesemakers sampled their creative masterpieces while Sarah “The Cheese Lady” used her unique artistic talent to bring extra attention to the hand-crafted cheeses.

Local cheesemakers included: Meister Cheese Company of Muscoda, Wis. – 3 Alarm Monterey Jack; Park Cheese Company, Inc. of Fond du Lac, Wis. – Provolone; Klondike Cheese Company of Monroe, Wis – Feta; and Pine River Cheese of Newton, WI –Cheese Spread.

Sarah “The Cheese Lady” is a nationally recognized cheese sculptor. Since 1996, she has received hundreds of commissions for her cheese creations, which have captured countless media impressions. Kaufmann creates some sculptures in her studios in Cincinnati and San Diego and also appears in person to sculpt cheese at a variety of venues: food & wine festivals, supermarkets, tradeshow, state fairs, sporting events, civic celebrations and other special occasions.